SOCIETY DAY AT HAVANA

PRESIDENT MENOCAL AND HIS FRIENDS PAY HOMAGE TO KING HORSE.

No Special Attraction in the Racing of the Day-Livingston Horses on Their Way-Earl of Savoy Pays Big Dividend.

Havana, Cuba, December 23.—Today was society day at Oriental Park and the clubbouse delegation turned out in full force. Among those in attendance was President Menocal of the Cuban republic, witn a party of friends. President Menocal announced that he had cancelled all his audiences until after January 1 and that he would be a frequent visitor at Oriental Park meanwhile. He is enthusiastic over the sport.

over the sport.

Today's card was devoid of any special attraction, but provided interesting racing, and the results were fairly formful.

Advices came by cable from New Orleans that Jefferson Livingston's horses left there for Havana this afternoon.

Earl of Savoy paid the phenomenal dividend of $249.40 for $2 in the mutuels today.

UNLUCKY YEAR FOR JAMES BUCHANAN.

Mr. James Buchanan did not experience a phenomenally successful time last racing season, having but three winners of a like number of races worth in all about 800 sovereigns, but he has met with a fair amount of success during his relatively brief turf career.

Mr. Buchanan was born in Canada in 1849, but came to Scotland the following year. His colors were first borne successfully by an animal bearing the queer name of Little Red Rat, which won numerous races over short courses. Subsequently he became possessed of Epsom Lad, by Ladas out of Divider, which he purchased from Lord Roseberry, and which proved a rare bargain.

Epsom Lad had won a couple of races as a two-year-old, but had accomplished nothing of note in his second season. As a four-year-old, by which time he was owned by Mr. Buchanan, he opened the season by defeating Diamond Jubilee and others for the Princess of Wales' Stakes, incidentally putting up three pounds overweight for the services of Gomez.

A little later he won the Eclipse Stakes by a head from Ian, with Diamond Jubilee again in the rear. He was well beaten by Pietermaritz-burg, in the Jockey Club Stakes, but re-established his reputation by beating Santoi, Volodyovski, Doricles, Merry Gal and William the Third-some opposition this—in the Kempton Park Stakes. Altogether Epsom Lad won over 20,000 sovereigns for his fortunate owner in that year.

The following autumn Mr. Buchanan recorded a neteworthy handicap triumph with the five-year-old Black Sand, which, in the hands of Kempton Campon, easily defeated the lightly-weighted Congratulation in the Cesarewitch, with Rightful third, the favorite, Elba, fourth, and such as Volodyovski, Wargrave and Carabini among those unplaced. Black Sand had "almost" won the race a twelvemonth earlier, but on that occasion Balsarroch stood in the way.

Mr. Buchanan was hopeful of winning his second Cesarewitch this autumn through the agency of William's Pride, but the daughter of William the Third, shough running with credit, was unable to do better tha

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. O. Keene is expected to pay a visit to Oriental Park at Havana after the holidays.

Reports from Havana are to the effect that O. W. Parry's good racer, Harry Shaw, is in training again after having recovered from his recent attack of

A score or more of American horsemen who were at the Juarez track Tuesday morning when the disturbances in Juarez broke out called automobiles from El Paso to carry them to the American side of the Rio Grande.

A Melbourne paper prints a picture of the riders of the winners of the Victoria Derby in 1865 and 1915, but The Globe's picture of the late Charles Littlefield and Bob Small, who rode Don Juan and Hieresy, the winners of the Plate in 1860 and 1912, a period of fifty-two years intervening, has never been paralieled in any country to my knowledge,—Francis Nelson in Teronto Globe.

EMPIRE CITY TRACK IMPROVEMENTS.

New York, December 23.—Following the action of James Butler and his associates of the Empire City Racing Association in taking possession of the Yonk-ers track yesterday, plans for many improvements have been made. A large force of men will be put to work improving the track itself, while the new plans call for extensive improvements in the buildings for next year.

One of the proposed improvements is made year.

ings for next year.

One of the proposed improvements is made possible by the purchase of a valuable strip of property that adjoins the track at the corner of Central and Yonkers avenues. This will afford a new entrance to the property, and plans have been drawn for an elaborate new gate, walk and driveway to

With the general renovation of the track, Mr. Butler will ship most of his racing stable from his Eastview Farm near Tarrytown to the grounds, where they will receive their early spring training for nearly year.

BREEDING OF THE NOW YEARLINGS DESTINED TO FURNISH THE STAR TWO-YEAR-OLDS OF 1916

To the man who loves racing for itself and takes an intelligent interest in the beautiful creatures which furnish the sport, there is nothing more fascinating than consideration of the lineage of the young things. It is easy to weave a mental picture of all sorts of possibilities for some especially choice bits of breeding. To such persons, in the two-year-old racing of next year is furnished quite an unusual fillip of interest and perplexity, by the large number of youngsters representing the most successful lines of breeding and racing on the other side of the big pond.

Of the stake races for two-year-olds already closed, Daily Racing Form has selected the United Hotel Stakes at Saratoga and the Spinaway Stakes for fillies, at the same track, as showing best in detail, the breeding of the big bands nominated to contend for honors there next August. It may be almost surely set down in advance that the two-year-old stars of next year will come from the lists here presented.

JUAREZ BACK TO NORMAL

BIG FIELDS OF POOR HORSES CONTEND WITH RESULTS BAD FOR FAVORITES.

Old Rosebud Turned Out on a Texas Farm in Hope He Can Be Trained Next Spring-Two Jockeys Suspended.

El Paso, Tex., December 23.—Things have settled back into their routine at Juarez and the racing went on today without special incident. Large fields were the rule and favorites fared poorly. Old Rosebud has been turned out at Wade McLemore's farm in Texas for the remainder of the Juarez meeting. He will be taken to Louisville in the spring, when another attempt will be made to train him.

Mose Goldblatt has departed for Havana and is due there Sunday.

Harry F. Brievogel. assistant to General Manager Matt J. Winn, is suffering from a slight attack of illness.

illness.

Jockey Carter was suspended for five days for disobedience at the post in the second race.

Barney Schreiber is a late arrival, coming from San Francisco, and will remain a few days, then go on to New Orleans.

Capt. B. C. Bunbury came in today from his ranch at Kerrville, with his Texas Futurity candidate Honeycut.

Jockey Mott also was suspended five days for rough riding in the third race.

ONE OF ENGLAND'S POPULAR RIDERS.

There is no more popular—and deservedly popular—member of the riding profession of the present day than Charles Trigg, to give him his full name, though probably no one ever thinks of him as Charles. It might be Charlie, or anything else, but the formal "Charles" would not seem appropriate where Trigg was concerned. Trigg first beheld the light of day in 1884, so that he is now thirty-one years of age.

The quadruped known as the horse always appealed to Trigg, and he took to race riding much as a duck takes to water. He was apprenticed to Mr. George Thursby—who could himself ride more than a little—and made his debut in 1900. His first winner was Aggressor, and, having once got a start, he has never looked back. He has not made much of a show on the classic records, it is true, his only winner in any of the really "great" events having been Rosedrop, which defeated Evolution, Pernelle and others in the Oaks of 1910 in the colors of Sir William Bass. Trigg, who does not make a specialty of flash finishes, made no mistake about winning, either, there being four lengths between Rosedrop and her nearest attendant.

Quite a number of important handicaps have, however, fallen to his share. Doubtless he derived anore than ordinary pleasure from his triumph on Mercutio in the Lincolnshire Handicap of 1911 wearing the somber jacket of Mr. Hibbert, for whom he has ridden for a good many years. Trigg was also on the back of Ebor when Mr. Bendon's four-year-old got the better of a tussle with Dean Swift in the Jubilee Handicap of six years ago. Another success that Trigg would appreciate was that scored on Vendale, belonging to his old master, Mr. Thursby, in the Chester Cup of 1903.

Trigg also rode Mintagon when that five-year-old won the Cesarewitch for Mr. Hill in 1906, while it was he who guided Mr. Alec Taylor's Highness when that filly annexed the Liverpool Autumn Cup four years later. He can, in addition, claim a couple of victories in the Royal Hunt Cup, having ridden Bachelor's Double in 1910 and Eton Boy in 191

BRADLEY'S DESMOND THREE-YEAR-OLD.

E. R. Bradley now has a coming three-year-old safely lodged at Idle Hour Farm from which he may rightfully expect good racing in 1916. This is the two-year-old coit Desmond's Day, by Desmond-Palmy Days. The Desmonds are characteristically extremely fast horses. This one started three times this year in England, but in such huge fields that the winner was bound to be lucky and little can be said for or against him based on his limited racing. A New York writer who looked him over after he was landed from the steamer Mesaba said of him:

"Probably the most valuable of the seven is Mr. Bradley's two-year-old bay colt Desmond's Day, oy Desmond out of Palmy Days. In addition to being royally bred, this is a colt of exceptionally fine individuality. He is rather large for his age and is well furnished, looking much like a race horse. His markings are rather small and except in good light they might pass unnoticed. He has a small star and three while feet, two before and one behind. It is reported that Mr. Bradley paid a liberal price for him, notwithstanding the fact that good thoroughbreds are unusually cheap in England just now."
